Dear Clubs,

Overseas Meet and Result Sanctioning for Masters Swimming

HKGSA shall only recognize results and Hong Kong Records made in Sanctioned NATIONAL/OPEN Overseas meets, conducted under World Aquatics rules, electronic timing system and by current World Aquatics listed officials. As reviewed by the Masters Swimming Committee, the abovementioned arrangement will be regularized as follows with immediate effect.

Apply results sanction BEFORE the above-mentioned meet, the following criteria should be met:

Swimmers who apply for result sanctioning should submit two weeks in advance the Meet Sanctioning and Record Ratification Application Form, meet information and programme, entry list and application fee of HK $80 per event to the HKGSA office. Application with competition results should be submitted within one month after the competition. Fee paid will not be refunded in any case. Failing which, any Hong Kong Masters Swimming Record breaking results shall not be recognized. The sanctioned results maybe served as Hong Kong Masters Swimming Record OR as a proven record in local masters swimming competition application.

Apply results sanction (Non - Hong Kong Masters Swimming Record) AFTER the above-mentioned meet, the following criteria should be met:

Swimmers should submit results sanction application for the above-mentioned meet to HKGSA no later than one month after the competition. Application Form, Programme, Results and application fee of HK $160 per event must be submitted together. It will only serve as a proven record in local masters swimming competition application. Fee paid will not be refunded in any case. Failing which, results shall not be recognized.
